DEDICATION

the smile in my heart.

INTRODUCTION

The Wiz Diary is a key to unlocking your potent self in this world. The language used is like what you may hear in an old English translation. The use of the pronoun “He” through the verses is also a representation for the “She” pronoun.

The Diary is for your reflection in the world around you. Pick a day to reflect on a verse and write your thoughts on the empty lines provided.

The journey you are about to take looks simple, but it is loaded with the ammunition you need to break through your obstacles in life.

Read the page with the verse and then write your thoughts down or your encounters in the world. This is preferably done when you have taken time to reflect on the verse. Even if you are not completely in agreement write your thoughts down, and how you understand yourself outside of the verses meaning.

When you finish with a particular verse in the diary, shade the box for the verse in the table or cross it out.

Prologue

Now for that human who must walk his most perfect path he must choose to learn from these verses of reflection. Whether that human is clothed as a man, woman, or child, indeed, all his doubts become doorways to self-realization that makes him choose the right decision at every junction of time.

Note: A couple of verses were taken from the book "Power of Paradise" by the same author. In the book the verses were converted into a short story to give you a better understanding of the verse.

Wisdom is not for men with broken hearts but for men
with open hearts, so
